

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

The Cost of World War I

Alliance	Country	Casualties	Financial and Economic Cost
Central Powers	Germany	7.21 million	$58.07 billion
Central Powers	Ottoman Empire (Turkey)	2.20 million	$14.3 billion
Central Powers	Austria-Hungary	4.65 million	$23.71 billion
Allied Powers	France	6.22 million	$49.88 billion
Allied Powers	Great Britain	3.43 million	$51.98 billion
Allied Powers	Russia	9.30 million	$21.60 billion
Allied Powers	Italy	2.19 million	$18.14 billion
Allied Powers	United States	325, 326	$32.32 billion
Neutral Powers	Belgium	120,000	$10.20 billion

Directions: Read the chart above and use it to complete two bar graphs, one for casualties, and one for cost. After you have finished, use your graph to answer questions on the next page:

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

1. How people were killed or wounded in WWI? _____.
2. What country had the most total casualties? _____.
3. Why did Belgium have the fewest casualties during the war?
4. What can you infer about where most of the fighting took place?
5. What countries made up the Central powers?
6. What four countries made up the Allies?
7. Which group, Central or Allies, suffered the most casualties of war?
8. What country spent the most money on the war? _____.
9. Why do you think that the people of Germany are upset after the war?
10. Critical thinking: Why were there fewer American deaths in World War I?