TALK TO MR. PERALES REGARDING THE MEDIA PRODUCTION OF FUTURE "BUZZ" NEWSLETTERS FOR TEAM 8-3!

HELLO TEAM 8-3! The 2005-2006 school year is finally upon us. This means that you can now boast about being 8th graders. Give yourself some credit, you've made it this far in your educational career. However, before you start to pat yourself on the back, there still remains a long road ahead. Guiding you through this journey is a group of the Junior high's finest teachers. Our promise to you is to make this year a memorable one. So sit down in the back row, fasten your seat belt, and lets enjoy the ride!

Meet your teachers

Mrs. Alanis

This will be Mrs. Alanis' 8th year of teaching at this campus. She is an E-E graduate, class of 93. She attended the University of Texas Pan American and received a Bachelors Degree in Interdisciplinary Studies with a minor in bilingual education. She now lives in Edinburg with her husband and two sons, Marco-4 and Christian-1. She loves to teach and is looking forward to an awesome school year.

H Mr. Perales

Mr. Perales enters his 3rd year of teaching at CFT Junior High. Originally from Elsa, Mr. Perales graduated in 2001 from Grinnell College, IA with a degree in History. Mr. Perales enjoys working with computers and exploring the mysteries of history. This summer Mr. Perales built a video arcade machine and traveled around the state of Texas.

He promises that this year will be a wonderful learning experience and that you will be better prepared for the future obstacles that await you in high school.

Mr. Nunez

Mr. Nunez enters his first year teaching with Team 8-3. However, do not be deceived by his mild-mannered look, behind those glasses is a mathematics-aholic who lives and breaths numbers. Mr. Nunez earned his bachelors degree of Mathematics at the University of Texas Pan American.

Ms. Ortega

Hello Students! I am Miss Ortega and I would like to welcome each of you to Team 8-3, home of the mighty Wild Bees! This year is very special for me because it is my first year with the district and with Team 8-3. I look forward to creating many good memories with all of you and I promise to make English class fun and interesting.

Mr. Salinas

Mr. Salinas is the pillar of team 8-3. He bears a dual responsibility of being our team leader and teaching Science. Mr. Salinas, also known as "Sal" has taught Science at CFT Jr. High for many years now. When "Sal" is not grinding away at the chalkboard, he spends his free time with his beautiful wife and two boys. "Sal" has been known to religiously "Q" it up every Sunday as he and his family tune in to Cowboy football. GO COWBOYS!
